Freight Instructions

We always endeavor to source the most economical freight for your orders however using freight companies can incur additional charges if you are not home. Please select from the available options below:

- I wish to always use Australia Post (If you are not home, Australia Post will leave a card advising the nearest PO for you to collect your parcel – no additional charges are incurred)
- Please use most economical freight – (You must nominate a place where parcels can be safely left at your home so as not to incur additional charges if you are not available at time of delivery – no responsibility is taken for missing packages. Should a redelivery be required, you will also incur a redelivery fee approx. $25 - $30 excluding GST.)
- I wish to nominate an alternate business address where deliveries can be made by the most economical means during all business hours. (Please provide a contact name and number at this business and ensure the business is aware of this arrangement. Any additional charges incurred as a result of the business refusing to accept the parcel will be billed to your account.)
